

Dear Class of 2012,

WELCOME BACK! Well, we have our first year under our belt and sadly, we didn't fair as well as we should have in the fund-raising department. Freshman year we raised less than $300- that's about $7000 less then the projected amount needed annually to attain our financial commitments for junior and senior year! We learned to navigate the building and hopefully made some new friends, but we really fell short of our goals as far as coming together for activities to support those great events we will be responsible for in the near future.

As the next 3 years zip by, Prom, Senior Banquet and Project Graduation are going to be here before we know it! So we're being faced NOW with the challenge of just "How are we going to pay for them???"

It is expected that by the time we're juniors/seniors, it will cost our class upwards of $50,000 for these events! WOW! We really need to get to get to work NOW – to create class unity, increase involvement, and build support for the fund raisers that will help us generate the money we need in order to make our high school years some of the most memorable years ever!

Help! Get involved. Get your fellow 2012 classmates, friends and family involved! Anything from spending time working on our annual float and banner, donating materials, opening your homes for activities and attending meetings for planning and organization, and working on fundraisers helps; your support, even in the smallest way—matters! BE the class of 2012, together.

Yes, we know that everyone has a busy schedule and can't make every activity. We also know that even if you don't have time, your financial support will still make a huge difference.

The simplest way to start covering the costs of our events is through your annual class contribution. Your family's annual contribution of $20 will help build our savings and reduce the number of fundraisers necessary to achieve our goal of $50,000. Or, your one-time, financial contribution of $50.00 to the class of 2012 will help jumpstart our savings account with a bang! A one-time gift from each sophomore family would provide a base of over $13, 000 to begin funding many of the activities that make high school so much fun!

On the back is the schedule of responsibilities and opportunities, by year, which will help the class of 2012 unite and attain the funds needed for the next three years. Attached is a list of volunteer opportunities and the pledge form to include with your check or money order.

THANK YOU, in advance for your support! Please fill out and return the volunteer pledge form with your contribution to the school office (Attention Class of 2012) or our class sponsors, Ms. Brown or Mrs.Karagosian, or contact your class officers below.
